EATING LUNCH AND CHATTING ABOUT WATER

Watsonville, CA – "Our first Brown Bag Lunch was such a relaxed way to talk about local water issues, that we thought we should continue" explained Mary Bannister, General Manager of the Pajaro Valley Water Management Agency (PVWMA). The second lunchtime gathering is scheduled for Tuesday, August 23, 2011 at noon in the Agency's conference room at 36 Brennan Street in Watsonville.

This luncheon will focus on Basin Management Plans (BMP) both past and present. The 2002 BMP is available on the agency's website www.pvwater.org Those interested in attending are asked to just bring a lunch, drinks and cookies will be provided. Please RSVP by calling the PVWMA office at 831-722-9292 so they are sure to get enough cookies!

The PVWMA is a public agency whose mission is to protect and preserve the water resources within the agency's jurisdiction, generally the greater coastal Pajaro Valley.
